Groundbreaking Food Gardens

Thursday, June 5

Niki Jabbour

Join Niki Jabbour for a dynamic talk showcasing how easy it is to grow food. Learn innovative techniques and designs for gardens that supply a long season of homegrown fruits, vegetables and herbs, and see how food gardens can be just as beautiful as any ornamental space. Gain great ideas for a year-round salad garden, a gourmet potted patio, a fairytale kids' garden, a pollinator plot and even a cocktail garden!

Magic of the Changing

Seasons: Autumn into Winter

Thursday, September 11

John Massey

UK nurseryman, plant breeder, collector and passionate gardener, John Massey has been the owner and guiding light of Ashwood Nurseries for the last 40 years. John's beautifully illustrated talk features the perennials, shrubs and trees of his own 3-acre garden. Stunning images together with John's expert knowledge, delivered with enthusiasm and humour, make this a talk not to be missed.

COURSES & WORKSHOPS

An individual membership at the TBG is just $45 per year: save on adult programs and it pays for itself!

NATURE

Medieval Midsummer

Saturday, June 21, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Public $32; Members $25

Celebrate the summer solstice through the traditions, fables and folklore of garlic, a “vulgar vegetable” that’s making its renaissance. Sample Four Thieves’ Vinegar, a Middle Ages recipe with garlic and herbs, and assess the potency of the garlic love potion recommended by ancient Roman naturalist, Pliny the Elder. [PG14S15] Liz Primeau

Birds and Beans

Thursday, July 24, 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Public $25; Members $20

Morning coffee is for the birds! Discover the impact your coffee choice has on different species of songbirds that appear in our backyards every summer. Learn from David Pritchard, co-owner and roaster at Birds and Beans Inc., how scientists, farmers and coffee roasters are working together to preserve the winter habitats of the intercontinental birds we share. [PG14S28] David Pritchard

Native Plants: Beautiful, Important, Threatened

Thursday, July 3, 7 to 8 p.m.

Public $15; TBG and NANPS Members $10

Learn how you can help to save our native plants in this lecture by Dr. John Oyston. The owner of Oak Hills Farm has re-created a 3-acre tallgrass prairie and planted an arboretum of 120 different native Ontario trees and shrubs. The property won a Garden Award from the North American Native Plant Society and John was declared a “Hero of the Moraine” by STORM (Save the Oak Ridges Moraine). GARDENING

Choice Plants for the Summer Garden

Wednesday, June 11, 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Public $40; Members $30

Does your garden go limp after the first flush of spring? Get the inside scoop on knockout plants that perform like a dream and will enhance your garden from the height of summer into the cool days of early fall, with a special emphasis on little known, underused perennials and colourful shrubs.

[PG14S07] Marion Jarvie

Hugelkultur: Log Gardens

Sunday, June 22, 1 to 4 p.m.

Public $40; Members $30

Has this winter's ice storm left you with fallen branches, a dead tree or an old stump? This hands-on hugelkultur workshop will introduce the benefits and techniques of burying wood in mounded garden beds. You'll walk away knowing more about how to help retain moisture naturally, build your soil's fertility, improve drainage and reduce yard waste. Learn how hugelkultur fits into permaculture principles and why it's a great way to help mitigate climate change at home.

[PG14S16] Garden Jane

Kokedama 201

Wednesday, July 2, 7 to 9 p.m.

Public $70; Members $60

Kokedama: loosely translated “koke” (moss) and “dama” (ball) has taken the TBG by storm. The Japanese have elevated the humble moss ball to high art. Try your hand at more challenging-to-grow plants like ferns or succulents, or start with something simpler if you are a beginner. Bring a friend to this hands-on workshop and build your own Kokedama to take home! Beginners welcome.

[PG14S20] Joseph Delarge

July in the Jarvie Garden

Wednesday, July 23,

10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Public $43; Members $35

This is your chance to see a true plants-woman's garden in full bloom! Join Marion in her Thornhill garden for tips on hot-weather care, creating colourful shade, pruning and dividing and moving plants. Do a summer assessment of your own garden and enjoy her flowering perennials, mixed borders and more! Plants available for sale. Appropriate for all levels. Directions will be provided.

[PG14S26] Marion Jarvie

A Garden for All Seasons

Wednesday, Sept. 24, 2 to 4 p.m.

Rain Date: Friday, Sept. 26,
2 to 4 p.m.

Public $40; Members $32

Join Paul Zammit, TBG's Nancy Eaton Director of Horticulture for a detailed review of four-season gardening. Paul will share tips on bulb planting and assorted pruning techniques, discuss how to highlight a garden's bones and key design features. Enjoy a talk, tour and treats to take home on this special afternoon.

[PG14S40] Paul Zammit

Miraculous Mosses for Garden Design

Monday, September 29, 7 to 9 p.m.

Public $32; Members $25

More than just a ground cover, mosses are a diverse plant group offering great utilitarian value as well as stunning design potential. Learn how to identify and use various mosses and companion plants in exciting garden applications varying from a moss lawn to green moss accents on garden sculptures. The care and propagation of mosses for both sun and shade will be included.

[PG14S42] Frank Kershaw

GARDEN DESIGN

Minimalist Gardens

Thursday, June 12, 7 to 9 p.m.

Public $32; Members $25

Minimalist gardens are making their mark in Toronto's changing housing market. Often complementing modern architecture, the minimalist garden presents a clean uncluttered look. This unique presentation will trace the roots of this movement, its adherents and garden design impacts. Don't be fooled by the title. Minimalist gardens are complex precision-designed landscapes that inspire and challenge our garden perceptions.

[PG13S08] Frank Kershaw

Garden Design Sketching for Beginners

Sunday, July 6, 1 to 3 p.m.

Public $32; Members $25

If you're ready to try your hand at garden design, this is the course for you. Beginning with basic design principles, Maureen will show you how to incorporate these ideas into your own sample design. A short guided tour through the TBG gardens will illustrate how garden design principles are brought to life.

[PG13S22] Maureen Hulbert
